The fans of the TV series "Dragon Booster" would like to show their enthusiastic support for the show and encourage the broadcasters to order more episodes to keep the series going.

This ground-breaking series has been honored with a Gemini award for Best Animated Program or Series, and this is a testament to the quality of the program. And the series has only continued to improve since it has been in production.

Shows like Dragon Booster don't come along very often. Not only does it have a unique visual style, but there are few western-made animated series that provide the level of depth with a continuing story line and actual character development as Dragon Booster does. This has spurred a loyal fan following that encompasses a wide range of viewers. Few animated shows have appeal outside a limited target audience, yet Dragon Booster appeals to both boys and girls, and men and women in countries around the world. These are people who want something more than the usual banal cartoon where the episodes are all unrelated and the characters never evolve. Because of this, Dragon Booster brings in viewers to your networks who might not otherwise watch.

And with the rich setting that has been created, there are a great many avenues that the show can explore to keep it interesting and fresh. Among the possibilities are episodes going back to the first dragon-human war, more stories involving some of the other crews such as the Prophets and the Mechanists, developing the personalities of the dragons to a greater extent and having them participate in the stories more, uncovering the fate of characters like Zulay, and so on.

We also encourage Jetix, Toon Disney and the ABC Family channel to begin airing the show in widescreen. Dragon Booster is produced in widescreen and that is how it is meant to look it's best. The show is aired in Canada and Australia in widescreen and there is no reason it can't be aired that way in the US as well. DVDs of the series should be released in widescreen as well.

We wholeheartedly encourage the broadcasters to order more episodes to keep this great series on the air for as long as possible. We are all eagerly hoping to watch this series for a long time to come.

Sincerely,

The Undersigned

A well-made interesting animated series being cancelled/shelved simply because the networks consider it "only a cartoon" and thus not important enough to continue purchasing episodes beyond a certain point. Very wrong-headed thinking in my opinion, especially in light of the program`s international fan support. Wise up, CBC, Jetix, ABC; don`t kill this program before it`s time. I`m sure Story Hat will be glad to continue producing this award winning show!

91	Sara	USA	Yes	Yes	Origionally, I thought this was going to be a stupid show where the good guys beat the bad guy in each episode and that's that. 139	Joshua M. Boraz	United States	No	Yes	I think that this show has massive potential. Particularly with the introduction of Drakus at the end of Season 2. What I would like to see is more of a Yugioh type dragon dueling the way they introduced in Return of Drakus. I think that would increase the overall popularity of the show. The show has a lot of mysteries, the biggest problem with the show is that it doesn't have enough characters who can "take care of themselves" . In Yugioh, for example, Joey Wheeler, Seto Kaiba, and Yugi Motou all can take care of themselves. In Avatar: The Last Airbender we most of the characters (except for Sakaa and Momo) can all take care of themselves in a fight. In Dragon Booster, the only characters who can hang on their own are Arthur Penn and Reaper. And Reaper has only appeared in 2 episodes. At any rate, the biggest problem is that no one in the main cast can deal with their own problems without the Dragon Boosters help. We need more character development and them handling their own situations.

256	Jeremy Williams	United States	Yes	Yes	Dragon Booster is a great show. Jetix (both Toon Disney's and ABC Family's) should re-run more of the new shows. To Story Hat: the series should be continued. Dragon Booster is one of those toons that has an ever-evolving story line. DB fans will fill robbed if it's not completed. Besides, why knock a good thing? I would also like to see more of the Dragon city security members identified by name. Also, can you show more of the characters that were shown in the playing cards? Keep up the good work Story Hat, thanx for being original in a time when staleness is the trend

309	kry	canada	Yes	Yes	i love the idea of giant flying ridable lizards, but i hate the occult, horriscopes and sorcery. these things are usually linked with somesort of "magic" and often dragons are said to be magical, and in my mind asociated with sorcery. i ABSOLUTELY love how none of that trash pollutes dragon booster. the closest thing is maby beu's "powers" 'cause he's the dragon of legend. anyways it's an awesome show, keep it together man!

315	amelia	canada	Yes	Yes	If you're looking for more subjects to develop, I really think you should develop Zulay's character. Why did she separate from Word and leave Moordryd behind. Since Word is such a huge figure in the series, she must have been very special for him to marry her and have his child. Does she have a dragon ?What her dragon looks like ? I see her as an amazon, beautiful and fearless. I love your program so much, I don't want it to end. There is so much to go on with all your beautiful characters.

545	JULIE MOREY	USA	Yes	Yes	MY SON LOVES THIS SHOW.
546	Rabby Kin	Canada	Yes	No	PLEASE continue this series! I've never seen anything like it and I'm sick of the generic North American cartoons showing they have no depth. This is the first American-style cartoon I've ever loved so much and I can't believe it'd be cut so short. PLEASE consider that the fans DO want to see more! It's hardly been given a chance and I know that with more advertising it would gain an even stronger fan-following. Please don't end it already. We DO want more!

587	Paul Ghiron	US	Yes	Yes	This is the first decent animated action adventure series to come along in a very long time. The fact that it has a continuing story-line makes it very unique and so much more appealing than all the insipid shows out there. Also, putting dragons into a futuristic setting for a change was genius. There's so much that can be done with this show. It deserves to air for a very long time. I implore the networks to order more episodes and keep this show going.

806	Henry Wagner	USA	Yes	Yes	Dragon Booster caught my attention from the first episode I saw. Then when "Pride of the Hero" aired, I was totalled sold on this show. It was so refreshing to see a villain who isn't one dimensional. Typical "kiddie" cartoons just don't do stories like this and it makes the series so much more interesting. The only thing that comes close is the best of the anime series. You just have to order more episodes and keep this show going. The story is so involving that it's worth a five year run at least. And yes, like most other people who have signed, I too would like to see the dragons show more personality and do more in the stories. The dragons are used a bit too much as if they were just horses when they can easily be more than that.

920	Kenton	Canada	Yes	Yes	Son loves the show
921	Eric Paul Sellers	United States of America	Yes	Yes	Face it, guys, THE most glaring fault of "Dragon Booster" is that the dragons (except for Beau) are essentially a gimmick - the entire show would need little change as far as premise but the main idea would be same if you replaced "Dragon" with "Robot" because it is such a blatant gimmick- this show is as much about the dragons as the humans if only because of the idea that the only thing that can stop the "Dragon-Human" war is if humans and Dragons work together, also its kind of a "why should the viewers really care about the dragons that much anyway since their essentially there just for the sake of being there" kind of scenario.

941	MG	Canada	Yes	No	Dragon Booster is the best show ever. The animation is cool. Its got action, it's funny (some times), and an excellent storyline. It's entertaining and fun to watch. It's the only show I know that is centered around dragons(real, cool dragons) and humans that ride them with a bit superhero-ness mixed in. I'd feel really sad if there where no more episodes.

967	dwayne	australia	Yes	Yes	dragon booster is wicked sick
968	Robert Knotts	United States of America	Yes	Yes	With the quality of the writing and animation of the show, I'm actually very surprised at the middling quality I've seen in the toys and videogames. As an adult I'm still a toy collector, but aside from the DVDs the merchandise I've seen simply has not lived up to the quality of the show itself. It's as if the show is designed for teens and pre-teens, but the merchandising is actually aimed at a younger grammar-school aged crowd.

973	Jon Marks	United States	Yes	Yes	I enjoy this show, but it would be a lot more popular if the stories had a darker and more serious tone more of the time. A lot more sci-fi fans would be attracted to the show if it was. Order more episodes and try it.
974	Matthew David Brousseau	United States of America	Yes	No

983	Brian Raidt	Canada	Yes	Yes	I don't think there has ever been an animated series with as rich story-telling as Dragon Booster. Many live action SciFi and fantasy programs can't even compare in the area of story and character development. Since all good things must come to an end, I hope that if more episodes are produced that there is some resolution to the story.
984	Carla	Canada	Yes	No	Artha really needs to lose once in a while, he always seems to win at whatever he's doing

993	Arthur P.	Lithuania	No	Yes	Firstly, there should be more adventures outside the Dragon city. Secondly, there should be some episodes where main characters face stand-alone type adventures, such as Kitt being trapped with Wyldfyr in a labyrinth and others not knowing she's there.

Maybe raise your target audience age a little; more character depth (and a little less immaturity; 16 year olds aren't THAT bad T_T Honest!); the kids would still love it and you'd gain a bigger fanbase.

1202	Beth	USA	Yes	Yes	At first I thought it was "just another kids show" but after watching just 2 episodes I realized Dragon Booster was something more. I am newly introduced to this show through Jetix and I hope to watch many more episodes with my son in the future.
1203	Jeffery	USA	Yes	Yes	It would be a true shame to end end this beautiful series that everyone loves. Even my 53 year old mother likes it. My whole family sits down to watch it and when my newborn comes I bet she will love it as much as I do.

1235	Matthew	UK	No	No	One of the best series I have seen for a long time. Great effects, story lines and has really good cliff hangers. Another good point is that you don't have to always watch the last episode to know what's going on in the next. The series also makes good use of some of the phrases used in films. (Ref: The Choosing, Part 2 – Kitt "Ok, you got me, but who's got us?" from a Superman film/series) Surprise, is the one of many ways that keeps the viewer thinking about what will happen next. (Ref: The Return of Drakkus, Part 2 - Mortis is Artha's father, Ref: (Paynn Rising - Moordryd, turns into the shadow booster). It will be a real shame if this series goes of the air because you can clearly see the effort that has gone into making every episode. There is a lot more that I have not said because the series has quite a lot of different elements to cover and I could keep going and going.

1245	Jesse G.	United States	Yes	Yes	As said in the petition, this is a great and rare show. Interesting art style and unique handling of the characters and story sets it aside from the (already limited) other shows and movies which, in general, seem to be sastified using the dragon as a symbol of destruction, evil, and all around not-goodness. I'm really excited to see this show continue, and hope this petition will encourage the producers and other higher-ups to agree with myself and the great number of fans who've already signed, as well as those who have yet to sign.

1729	ILOVEDRAGONBOOSTER	USA	Yes	Yes	I want Kitt and Artha to go out....I just want their affection for one another to show through- but it doesn't need to be really romantic. I also do not want Kitt and Moordryd to go out because that would be a complete and total disaster. It would also wreck the story line because then Artha, Parm and Mortis would be on the good side and fight Moordryd, while Kitt would be on Moordryd's side and fight against them. And another consequence would be that Kitt would also (technically) be supporting another dragon-human war by going out with Moordryd.

2122	Bobby Holman-Coakley	USA	Yes	Yes	When this show first started to air in the states I took an instant liking to the style used in production. I being an aspiring animator I thought to myself "this is the kind of style I want to learn and utilize to make shows of my own." This show has been a weekly pleasure to watch as it leaves me to question when obvious plot changes will occur, and how the story will play out. It would be a shame if this show like so many others before it is allowed to be cancelled due to the networks choosing to look more at profit and less at the fact that a show given the chance will grow in popularity.

2282	Matthew Marks	USA	Yes	Yes	This is great show for people of all ages. I'm an adult animation fan myself and I typically only watch anime since I've long since grown tired of the non-sensical kiddie stuff that pervades American animated shows. Dragon Booster is the first non-anime show I've liked since Disney's Gargoyles. Although I would like to see them tighten up the stories and not leave so many loose ends and inconsistencies between episodes, this show still shines as a breath of fresh air among the endless waves of banal cartoons that have no point to them other than to be silly in ways no one over the age of 8 can appreciate. As I said, not since Gargoyles has there been a non-anime action adventure show that's been any good until Dragon Booster. It's also about the only non-anime show with a sci-fi setting. Just look at the success of the Sci-Fi Channel. There's a huge audience for sci-fi shows and Dragon Booster could appeal to them if it was just promoted to that audience. This show deserves to go on for a long time.

2297	William	Canada	Yes	Yes	I like the show and really like dragons. As a suggestion I think you should add a race of dragons that have wings and can fly and I have this idea that I think would work good with the show but it is really long so email me and I will give it to you. It has to do with both dragons humans and a new race involving both creatures. It's worth checking out. Love the show keep it on the air.
2298	Derrick	canada	Yes	Yes	This is an amazing show that should be kept on the air. This is the only cartoon type show that i have or will ever watch. I find it interesting and it gives me something to look forward to when i get home.

2326	Schmee	USA	Yes	Yes	It's not very often a REALLY GOOD cartoon like this comes along. It's creative and new and has an incredibly interesting plotline, and tons of WONDERFUL characters. Especially since it isn't only the main four that the series focuses on, but it also includes all of the minor characters as well. This show is award-winning, and is such a breath of fresh air... It would be such a shame to take it off the air, or to stop production of new episodes. Think of the viewers, and, for the channels, the viewers they would lose. Jetix would certainly lose me. Please, keep creating new episodes of Dragon Booster! No one wants to see this story end.

2575	Matt wilhelm	USA	Yes	Yes	I have only recently discovered this series through the internet, and have managed to find a few online airings of recordings of this series, but i think it has the makings of something far greater than a simple TV show. It needs to be allowed to evolve further. Especially with a greater emphasis on the dragons themselves involved, and not just Beau.

If I don't get to see what happens to Artha once he get's into the Dragon Academy, there will be some serrious repercussions! Serriously though, you should be having a descussion with your marketing and scheduling departments as to why this show is not as succesfull as it should be. It would be a shame to see such a good story go to waste.

3123	Cole Grant	United States	Yes	Yes	This show has more subtle depth then half the brain numbing crap pushed on kids today. With elements of mythology and science fiction, combined with lessons in fair play and duels between good and evil. The writers even go so far as to hint that mordryd, who is the main antagonist in the story may have some redeeming qualities and become a hero himself. To cancel this show, like many others that have a deeper story line, would be a loss for the kids and older fans that enjoy watching it for the story and the art.

3339	Ken Robertson	USA	Yes	Yes	This show really needs more episodes; a LOT more episodes. It's the only thing on Toon Disney worth watching and the only show that tries to do something new and different. There aren't anywhere near enough action/adventure shows, let alone ones with dragons in them. I'm tired of all the silly comedy cartoons that are trying to be the next Sponge Bob. I don't watch any of these and I never will. Shows like Dragon Booster have a real story line and real character development. And it's just plain fun to watch. We need more shows like this. I urge all the networks to order more episodes today.

3432	Jake	USA	Yes	No	Dragon Booster is the best show on Jetix, period. It shows the fight between good and evil and it also teaches that we need to work together to face all our challenges in life. I think it would be a great loss to Disney (Jetix) if Dragon Booster was lost. The show was also left hanging with Mordrid and Artha starting to go to the Academy. I'd like to see those episodes.

3452	Jacinta Rose Hill	United States	Yes	Yes	Dragons are an integral part of past myths and legends; in past civilizations . Dragons give the sense of being in their world when there story is told in the form of the Dragon Booster series. To no longer show this series, is bad business. Personally, on my DVR, I have it set to record every episode this week..Feb. 20, 21, & 22 (2007). I have always loved science fiction. Especially ANYTHING to be remotely related with Dragons. This TV series relates to alot of today's youth, in the sense that this young teenager is struggling to come into his own, as the person that he is destined to become. His Dragon, Bo, is the backbone to this series in the jist that he is the guiding concience other than Artha's Father. The series is very , well, to be blunt, well worth any future ordering of episode due to it's quite obvious popularity. Why, when such a HUGE fan base is making there presence known, would the producers go to the extreme of not ordering any more episodes. Dragon Booster deserves this chance!!!!!!!

3633	Tim Walker	USA	Yes	Yes	I've been waiting so long for a show like this. Finally, a show about dragons that isn't set in medieval times and isn't solely written for five year olds. Putting dragons in a futuristic sci-fi setting was genius, and having them race is just pure fun. Who wouldn't want to ride a racing dragon! Having a continuing storyline is great, too. I don't think I'd be as interested in the show if it wasn't for that. Because of all this, I can't tell you how disappointed I was to read that no more episodes have been made past 39 yet. This makes me so sad it's hard to express. I finally find an animated show that isn't all inane dreck, and then I learn that it's ending way too soon. Please Jetix and the other networks, you've got to order more episodes of this show. It's just too good and too much fun. The only thing I would change is to have the dragons show more personality. More of the dragons need to start behaving like Beau and Propheci, dragons that can think for themselves. Keep this show going!

3658	Natalie	Australia	Yes	Yes	I'm a 24 year old comic and character artist, who's been studying character development and animation since I was old enough to understand the concept. And NEVER in all my investagative dives into various cartoons, spanning both East and West, have i come across anything as inspiring, beautiful, well directed, unique and broad in character as DragonBooster. It brings back the moralities of the old 80's toons without the banal "moral of the story" messages or hidious animation, it embraces the Eastern use of continuous plot and antiheroes- creating a much lacked grey area in the usually black and white good and evil western idea of cartoons. Yet it keeps the vivid colours and occasionally silly humour of the west, creating, in my own opinion THE first ever bridge between Western cartoons and the anime empire. To have this show finish at only three seasons would verge on criminal. DragonBooster is an inspiration, and perhaps even a pioneer in cartoon development in the west. DO NOT let it go.

3674	David Perry	Canada	Yes	Yes	This show is awesome! I hope some network picks it up for the reamining planned epsiodes! my only problem is that it only airs on CBC at what is (to me) an obscure time-slot designed for children only. if DragonBooster is syndicated to other channels, like ytv, teletoon, or even american channels like Fox or Family, the fan base is sure to expand exponentially!

3720	chase c. stafford	United States	Yes	Yes	Dragon booster TV series; I'm 17 and hooked on it, I watched the first episode a while back, and then when I moved and didn't have any TV I used the net to watch the other episodes. (I couldn't stop watching it, I looked forward to the next one, and when I missed it for some reason I would kick my self mentally.) Shows like Dragon Booster don't come along very often, unique visual style, level of depth with a continuing story line, with actual character development as well. 3894	Sarah Schultz	United States	Yes	Yes	This is one of the shows I look forward to the most. It seems to me that television programming for children has gotten to be so abnoxiously boring that I cant understand why the producers would think kids would enjoy them. Dragon Booster is quite different indeed. There is an intriguing, NON-REPETATIVE plot with characters that grow and plenty of humor that is not too childish or adult so many ages can enjoy it. It's also very original-a futuristic cross with the classic mythology of dragons is quite pleasing. Another wonderful aspect would be the art. The creative ornate markings and designs of the dragons are always a favorite of mine to watch for. Even the backdrops are interesting if one takes the time to investigate. I often find the art and style of other cartoons to be very static and plain but Dragon Booster's intriguing mix of japanese anime-style with western influence has created a style all it's own that gives wonderful character to the show. Thank you and please continue Dragon Booster.

My children love it. The commercial reality is that this program has marketing potential to kill yugioh and the other trash. Figurines, collectibles, the card game, accessories for figurines e.g. different coloured gear etc .. My 4.5 yo daughter can already recite the names of the dragons and their riders. I would be buying your stuff for another decade, if you keep producing it.

3999	Jessie B	Australia	Yes	Yes	I would love it if a fourth series of Dragon Booster was created, simply because it is an intriguing story that amazed me, along with a lot of people all around the world, right from the very first episode. So far, the show has been exciting, humourous and lots of fun to watch, and I don't think that it should stop at the third series. The new series would provide more time for viewers to get to know the characters, both dragon and human, a lot more, and the first dragon/human war could be described in more detail. Personally, I really, really want to know how the Academy works and what sort of training Artha and Moordryd have to go through now that they're in the Academy. But this will remain a mystery unless the proposed series titled Dragon Booster Academy goes ahead.

4188	Cedar Malick	United States of America	Yes	Yes	Recently, I have noticed that many cartoons, or animated series, have been shallow, and in overall, rather pathetic and poorly executed. Dragon Booster is one of the VERY few that I have found to be worth anything. It is mature, well thought out and for once is an original idea, the fact that it looks good only compliments all this. It will be a shame if Dragon Booster is not continued, this story has much leg room (so to speak). Repetitious fight scenes (like Dragon Ball Z, GT, ect..) and garbage as far as storylines is getting very annoying.

It's got good depth in terms of storyline, characters and background of this unique world, something many other animated series these days are severely lacking. Just having dragons isn't always enough to get me interested, but with dragons like Beau, there's really a lot to like. Even though he doesn't have a speaking role, it's not hard to see that he's quite a character.

I never get tired of watching the episodes even though I've seen each one dozens of times now. The look of the show is outstanding and the dragons are so cool looking. The only thing is I wish the dragons would do more on their own. Beau is my favorite and I'd like to see him taking charge instead of just following Artha all the time. But more than anything else, I just want more episodes! Please keep this series going!

4768	Sarah Buffkin	United States	Yes	No	I absolutely love this show. It is better than any cartoon I have ever watched, and it's great for all ages. Dragon Booster has to continue, because we have to find out how life is at the academy. This show has wonderful characters and keeps viewers coming back for more. Please continue creating more episodes, and let the story of Artha Penn continue!
4769	Aileen Najduch	Canada	Yes	Yes	My daughter loves this show. It is great because it isn't just a "boys' show" it is something boys and girls both can be fans of.
4770	Lydia	Canada	Yes	Yes	I really believe that the dragons are expressed as objects not as beings. I think that they should be given a bigger role when it comes to helping the Dragon Booster. I'd also like to see Kitt and Parmon having a little more action and martial skill in the series (IF she's to be the Fire Booster and Parman in charge with the green draconium, shouldn't they be a little more fit for the role besides having red draconium?). Thank you.
4771	Tyranacus Ryugo Shimmerscale	U.S.A.	Yes	Yes	Very, very good series. Hope this petition goes through for more episodes, t'would be a disappointment if they just left everyone on the edge of the perverbial cliff.

4775	Adele Mcdougall	Australia	Yes	Yes	I would like to see the completion of the series and whether the new war would be prevented, I would also like to see an explanation or episodes to characters that haven't been seen or arn't well known such as Zulay and Gunny, Stuarts dragon and I would also like to see more on the other crews as they don't feature alot in the show
4776	Volgeroth	Brazil	Yes	Yes	Esse anime é muito bom, não parem de fazer ele, Dragon Booster Academia pode fazer muito mais sucesso do que seu antecessor, então não desistam dele, por favor...

It'd also be great to see a flash back to an adventure Beau and Artha had together when they were growing up. But more than anything else, we need more episodes! This show deserves over 100 at least!
